DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 26 May 2006 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. Claims 1-11, 32- 34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, line 7, the phrase "may be " is indefinite because it is not positive point out whether the data packets are decoded or not. It is suggested that "may be" should be changed to – are--.

In claim 32, line 12-13, it is not clear what is meant by "determining transport packets that comprise the plurality of transport packets .

In claim 34, line , there is no antecedent basis for "the locating step".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claim 32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Na et al (6,366,731).

Regarding claim 32, Na et al discloses a method for transmitting a digital video signal comprising step ; receiving a digital bit stream formatted in accordance with a first digital data standard and comprised of a control data portion and a payload data portion, each of the payload data portions including a plurality of data packets that represent a video program and are formatted in accordance with a digital television standard (columns 2-4). Wherein each payload data portion further includes an application header that has control information (PID, PMT,PAT) for allowing the plurality of data packets in the payload data portion to be filtered (extracted) and determining transport packets that comprises a plurality of transport packet in response application header portion (column 40-53).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

6. Claim 34 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Na et al (6,366,731) in view of Suzuki (5,751,156)..

Regarding claim 34 , Na et al fails to specifically teaches locating null packets . Suzuki teach apparatus having means for locating null packet (column 5, lines 5-15). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to modify Na et al with Suzuki by providing means for locating null packets of the transport stream in order to accurately accessing transport packets for decoding or playing .

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claim 33 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
8. Claims 12-31 are allowed.

Conclusion

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Nakase teaches apparatus using control information PIT and PMT in a header for determining and extracting packets .
